Wairarapa railway line closed for essential maintenance between 26th of December - 10th of February

The Wairarapa Train Line will be closed for 46 days between 26 December 2024 and 10 February 2025 to allow essential maintenance work to occur on the tracks and tunnels. A bus replacement service will run during this period.

For various reasons the bus replacement service isn't able to travel to the Maymorn station and instead stops on State Highway 2. I realise this is super inconvenient for passengers who get on at Maymorn.

To discuss the issues and better understand your experience, a team from Metlink and me will be at the Maymorn Station from 6.30 – 8.00am on Wednesday 30 October. Please come down to the station and have a chat with us.

FYI: Trains will also be replaced by buses on part of the Hutt Valley Line (trains will run between Upper Hutt and Petone only) for 18 days between 26 December 2024 and 13 January 2025 to commission the new signalling system at Wellington Railway Station, as well as undertake track renewal and maintenance works.

Dangerous, Affected, and Insanitary Buildings Policy – The council would like your feedback: Submissions close 27th of October

We've recently reviewed our Dangerous, Affected, and Insanitary Buildings Policy and want to get your feedback on what we're proposing.

The Building Act 2004 requires each territorial authority to have a policy on dangerous, affected, and insanitary buildings, and to review that policy every five years to make sure it's fit-for-purpose.

The aim of the Act is to help make sure people who use buildings can do so safely, without endangering their health and can escape from a building if it's on fire.

If you'd like to read more about this policy, the review we've carried out, our recommendations, and to make a submission, go to letskorero.upperhutt.govt.nz

Submission forms are also available at Council reception and Upper Hutt Central Library.

Submissions close on 27 October 2024.

OBITUARIES & DEATH NOTICES

8th of December, 1918 – 11th of October, 2024

Wynne Malkin was born in Brighton, England in December 1918. Her father, Edwin Malkin served in France with the Royal Sussex Regiment during the 1st World War. Her mother Florence was a nurse.

She had three sisters and two brothers, and the whole family emigrated to New Zealand in 1925, settling in Waipukurau.

In 1941 she married Christopher John Bullen who worked at the Gear Meat Company in Petone, and they set up house in Upper Hutt. They had two children Chris and Jim, and once they were old enough she resumed work as a kindergarten teacher, before becoming elaborate secretary to Industries and Commerce Minister Phil Holloway in the Nash Labour Government.

New Zealand Herald

Her interests went more towards local politics, and in the 1960's she stood for the Upper Hutt Council, where despite topping the poll, it was made clear that she wouldn't be Deputy Mayor. She promised to herself that the next woman to be in the same position wouldn't suffer the same put-down, and when Doris Nicholson topped the poll in a later election, the post of Deputy Mayor was almost automatically hers.

After Chris retired, he and Wynne moved to Levin, and Wynne was a regular attendant at local and national political meetings. When Chris passed away at the age of 92, Wynne moved into the Reevedon Retirement Village, she later sold it and moved into the Reevedon rest home.

Wynne celebrated her 100th birthday in December 2018, when asked if she had any secret to her longevity, she said "I'm sorry to disappoint you, but I have no secret. I just lived each day and got on with it."

She lived this way right up until the end, teaching others at the rest home how to play indoor bowls, and helping to run games of Trivial Pursuit. Only two days prior to her death, she was talking to staff about another new activity.

Wynn Bullen passed away on Friday, October 11th, 2024. Just weeks short of her 106th birthday.

City of Industry: An Exhibition Celebrating Upper Hutt's Industrial Heritage

Location: Upper Hutt Central Library, 844 Fergusson Drive, Upper Hutt.

This exhibition celebrates Upper Hutt's brief reign as an industrial powerhouse through images, objects and the stories of those who made it possible.

Upper Hutt was late to industrialise in comparison to many other areas in the Wellington region. It soon made up for lost time, though, growing between 1948 and the end of the century to become one of New Zealand's most significant industrial centres.

During these decades numerous factories dotted the district, producing everything from tyres, ladders and telephones to matches, buttons and lingerie, before changing economic circumstances brought this era to an abrupt end.

Upper Hutt Blockhouse Open Day

Location: Blockhouse Lane, off McHardie Street Trentham, Upper Hutt

This Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga property is not open to the public often, so bring the family between 11am and 3pm (no booking required)!

Come visit the Upper Hutt Blockhouse between 11am-3pm on Saturday 4 November.

"The Upper Hutt Blockhouse is one of the few remaining buildings associated with the New Zealand wars, as well as a monument to Pākehā settler anxiety, built in fear of an attack by Māori that never came. Visit today and you'll get a sense of the defensive 'last stand' mindset. On both floors you'll find a series of balistraria, tightly angled gun slots through which members of the militia would defend their posts. Keep an eye out, too, for an exposed panel where you can see the fine gravel that was packed between the exterior weatherboards and inch-thick interior boards to absorb the impact of answering gunfire. Don't be fooled by the windows – they were added later. Originally, the loop holes you'll spy on the walls were the only way to see out."

Inside the Blockhouse, there's an exhibition from Whirinaki Whare Taonga, telling the early story of Upper Hutt and its Blockhouse.

Health & Safety

A first aid kit, fire extinguisher and toilet facilities on-site. Fire exit located on the ground floor, and emergency assembly point outside the Heretaunga College Gym.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

This is a fun Run & Walk on the Remutaka Rail Trail through the Remutaka Ranges. We start at 254m above sea level and cruise up a shallow gradient (<1 in 40) all the way to the turn around near the summit.

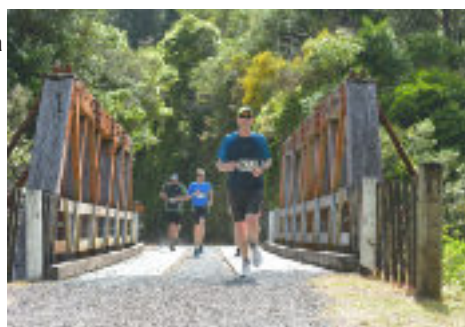

This is a scenic and historic route that is a jewel in the Wellington region. The steep, bush clad valley, the river below, tunnels, bridges and plenty of sweaty people make for a great morning out. This course can easily be negotiated by any modestly fit person. All distances are predominantly on hard packed gravel track. Water is supplied throughout the course and there will also be a coffee cart near the Kart Club clubroom.

Please note that there won't be any EFTPOS services available, so please bring cash for hot drinks/food.

RECIPES

Chicken Laksa

The amount of spicy ingredients can be adjusted to taste. I tried copying the amounts from my Chicken Pad Thai recipe but for some reason, they're much more intense to me in this dish. To each their own.

Ingredients

Coconut cream, 400 ml can 3 cups of chicken stock
cooked chicken (amount to your liking)
2 tsp red curry paste
1 1/2 tbsp sweet chili sauce
Fish sauce, 2 tsp (or more according to taste)
Lime juice, 1 tbsp (or more according to taste)
2 tsp brown sugar
200g noodles (if using spaghetti or other dried noodle, cook before using)
assorted vegetables of your choosing

Method

1. Put the coconut cream, chicken stock, cooked chicken, red curry paste, sweet chili sauce, fish sauce, lime juice, and brown sugar in a large pot, stir to combine.
2. Bring to the boil and then add the noodles, and prepared vegetables.
3. Reduce to simmer, and cook for 15 minutes.

Note: Depending on the vegetables, you might want to cook them in advance before adding the liquid ingredients. E.g. if you've added onions, chopped/sliced carrot etc.

Hundreds and Thousands Biscuits

Ingredients:

- 125g butter, softened
- 1/3 cup sugar
- 1 tsp vanilla essence
- 1 egg
- 2 cups flour
- 1 tsp baking powder

Method:

1. Preheat oven to 180°C
2. Cream the butter and sugar, and then beat in the vanilla.
3. Add the egg, beating well, then sift the flour and baking powder together before stirring them into the mixture. Mix well.
4. Knead the mixture with your hands to ensure all ingredients are fully mixed together.
5. On a floured surface, roll out the dough out thinly. Then use a biscuit cutter to cut into rounds, and place on a greased baking tray or one lined with baking paper.
6. Continue to gather and roll out the remaining dough to form more biscuits. I managed to get 35 out of this mixture.
7. Bake for 10 minutes. The biscuits should only be very lightly browned.
8. Let the biscuits cool on the tray for a couple of minutes before transferring to a wire rack. Let them cool completely then ice them with a white glacé icing.

Make glacé icing by combining 1 cup of icing sugar, a tsp of butter, 1/2 tsp of vanilla essence, and a very small amount of boiling water to bring the icing to an easily spreadable consistency. Mix in 2 tsp of Hundreds and Thousands and then spread the icing on the biscuits.

Kneecap

Running time: 105 minutes

Rated: R16 (Violence, offensive language, drug use & sex scenes)

When a Belfast schoolteacher crashes into the orbit of two unpredictable and raucous best-friends, the needle drops on a hip-hop act like no other.

Liam Óg Ó hAinle, Naoise Ó Cairealláin, and JJ Ó Dochartaigh leap onto the screen to play themselves in this heightened comedy-drama about the anarchic group, Kneecap, who become unlikely figureheads of a civil rights movement to save their mother tongue.

Armed with a blend of native Irish and English verses and furious, politically charged rhymes, the trio must overcome police, paramilitaries and politicians trying to silence their defiant ketamine-fuelled sound. In this fiercely original sex, drugs and hip-hop biopic, also starring Michael Fassbender, KNEECAP is a rollicking trip into the meaning of pure defiance.
